ENEMY STILL HELD IN CHECK

NEITHER IN FLANDERS NOR IN PICARDY NOR ALONG THE MORE IMPORTANT ARRAS SECTOR HAVE THE GERMANS SOUGHT TO RE-NEW ATTACKS. NO EVIDENCE OF REACTION IS NOTED EITHER ALONG THE SOMME FRONT WHERE AUSTRALIANS MADE SUCH IMPORTANT GAINS.

EXPERTS SAY THE EXPECTED HUN ATTACK CANNOT NOW BE MUCH LONGER DELAYED WITHOUT ENDANGERING WHOLE ENEMY LINE

DARING CANADIANS MAKE IMPORTANT GAINS IN THE ARRAS SECTOR. AMERICAN TROOPS HOLD FAST IN SPITE OF HEAVY ARTILLERY BOMBARDMENTS. U. S. TROOPS CONFIDENTLY WAIT FOR INFANTRY ATTACKS.

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Germany's hordes are still held in check. Neither in Flanders Picardy nor along the important Arras sector has the enemy renewed his attacks in force and he has not reacted against the gain made north of the Somme by the Australians in which 200 prisoners were captured.

On both battle fronts the artillery fire has been intense and the German attack cannot be much longer delayed if the enemy hopes to take advantage of whatever damage has been done to the allied positions by the heavy bombardment carried out by his guns since his repulse of Mt. Kemmel more than a week ago. The greatest German artillery activity has been on the northern half of the Flanders front and south of the Somme to below the Avre in Picardy.

American troops in their positions south of the Somme have been subjected to intense artillery fire, the enemy using more than 15,000 shells in a short period. There have been no signs of German infantry attack against the Americans, who confidently await the first signs of activity.

A large part of the southern end of the important Arras sector has been taken over by Canadians, who also are being visited by a storm of shells. French generals believe the Germans may attack simultaneously in the Flanders, Arras and Amiens front in an effort to push back the allies in one mighty blow. The hill positions are held by the allies and their guns dominate the Germans all along the lines.

The Austrian blow against the Italian front has not developed. Only moderate artillery fire is reported along most of the front and no infantry activity. The Austrians may be waiting for the most favorable moment, probably renewal of the German drive in France.

REVOLUTION IS THREATENED THROUGHOUT AUSTRIA-HUNGARY

Berne, May 7.—(Associated Press Cable)—Labor and socialist organizations in Austria threaten revolt against the government's action in suspending parliament. Swiss newspapers print a message from Vienna quoting the Sozial Demokratische Korrespondenz to the effect that a committee of the socialist party and a committee of the German socialist deputies' club have decided to issue a manifesto to the working class in regard to the government's action in which the following declaration will be made:

"If absolutism is re-established out of regard for Pan-Germanism, which is prolonging the war, the working classes will be forced to fight for their rights."

The manifesto concludes by exhorting the workers to hold themselves ready.

U. S. VESSEL BESTS SUB IN BATTLE

Washington, May 7.—A fight between the American steamer Tidewater and a German submarine on March 17th in which the submarine was defeated and perhaps sunk, was reported today by the Navy Department.

The Navy Department announcement said:

"The commander of the armed guard on the steamship Tidewater reports to the Navy Department that on March 17th, about 11:30 p. m., a submarine was sighted off the starboard bow heading toward the vessel about 15 yards off. As the ship turned it missed the submarine by not more than 20 feet. The U-boat was then submerging. The ship's guns were brought to bear and the first shot hit ahead of her.

"The pointer fired the second shot and had what the captain, the chief engineer and myself and other members called a 'clean hit,' and was satisfied it was effective. The third shot was fired by the boatswain's mate in charge of the after gun's crew, having her spotted and firing in the position she last submerged in. We resumed our course and commenced zig-zagging but the submarine did not appear again. We made all preparations for an attack at daybreak but there were no signs of a submarine."

ALL IDLERS WARNED BY KLU KLUX CLANSMEN

Riders Parade the Streets of Birmingham Serving Notice on Idlers to Go to Work.

Organization May Spread Over Wide Area Until Slackers Get to Work.

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Birmingham, Ala., May 7.—One hundred and fifty white robed men in Klu Klux Klan uniforms carrying an American flag rode through the streets of this city last night warning idlers to find work to do.

The riders distributed tags saying the United States is at war and every man is needed except those who are hostile to the government and the Klan intends to see there is no idleness.

"If you would be justly entitled to the toleration and protection you are enjoying, find work to do and do it. No able-bodied man, rich or poor, has a right to consume without producing. Take heed and go to work. The eye of scrutiny is upon you."

"Be respectful to the flag and loyal to the government. Aid by every means at your command the suppression of disloyalty by either speech or action. The Klu Klux Klan is pledged to the enforcement of the above tenets."

S. S. TYLER TORPEDOED 11 DROWNED

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

New York, May 7.—The American steamship Tyler, formerly an old Dominion freighter, has been torpedoed and sunk off the French coast, according to information received here today. Eleven members of the crew were killed or wounded.

The Tyler was a boat of 3,928 tons gross and was built in 1913. She was sunk May 3rd.

NORTHCLIFFE AND RHONDDA QUIT POSTS

LORD NORTHCLIFFE

Lord Northcliffe, chairman of the London headquarters of the British Mission to the United States and director of propaganda in enemy countries, has tendered his resignation on account of ill health, according to a dispatch from London. At the request of Premier Lloyd George and the Cabinet he consented to continue in office until a successor can be found. Baron Rhondda has resigned as British Food Controller, a position he has filled for ten months. He has been absent from his post some weeks, owing to illness.

BARON RHONDDA

The Tyler was last reported as leaving Portland, Maine, for Genoa, March 6th. She carried a cargo of grain shipped through the Italian minister for shipping. She was one of the first ships commandeered by the United States Shipping Board last October, and since then has been engaged in the Italian trade.

BAD FEELING IN UKRAINE IS GROWING

Government Notifies Berlin that German Officials Must be Withdrawn

(Associated Press Cable)

London, May 7.—The Ukraine government has sent a note to Berlin intimating it will resign if several German officials are not recalled by Germany, says a Reuters dispatch from Moscow.

The note mentions General Von Eichorn, the military commander and Baron Mumm von Schwarzenstein, the German ambassador.

OLD OR NEW?

Whether the note referred to above was sent by the old Ukrainian government or the new peasant government is not clear. Probably it was sent to the old government and lead up to the arrest of members of that government by German military authorities when they protested against the measures being carried out by the Germans.

CHAMBERLAIN TO GO AFTER THE AIRPLANE SHORTCOMING

Declares Senate Committee Will Put Its Finger on Men Responsible.

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Washington, May 7.—Chairman Chamberlain of the Senate Military Committee announced in the Senate today that with the support of the Senate his committee would investigate the aircraft situation with a view to determining how and where the money appropriated has been spent.

He declared his committee proposed to "put its finger on men responsible" for conditions in aircraft production and added "the committee does not propose to engage in any white-washing process, either."

He unreservedly declared not one American-built battle plane had yet been sent to Europe, although material in large quantities, had been shipped abroad for assembly.

URGES HUGE SUMS. While the Senate was discussing the aircraft situation, Secretary Baker and other war department officials were urging before the House Military Committee a new billion dollar aircraft appropriation.

Secretary Baker declared facts and figures should not be made public, although the committee is entitled to the details.

LUSITANIA SINKING IS RECALLED BY LONDONERS

British Editors Fear We Are Growing Dull by the Horrors of War to Lusitania Tragedy.

(By Associated Press Cable)

London, May 7.—The Lusitania anniversary is commemorated by the newspapers today with big caption and special articles recalling the great tragedy due to German ruthlessness.

The Daily Graphic in an editorial laments that the public apparently is becoming dulled to the horror of the Lusitania atrocity. It asks why there is not a commemorative procession this year as last year. It says:

"Germany has not changed since then. That is the important thing for all of us to remember. She still glorifies in the sinking of the Lusitania and butchery of women and children and will repeat that any every other atrocity again at the first opportunity."

POLICE AND FIREMEN ASK FOR INCREASE

$15 Per Month Is Sought by Police and Firemen to Keep Pace With High Cost of Living.

Numerous Matters of More or Less Importance Are Given Consideration at Council Meeting.

Quite a number of things of importance occupied the attention of the City Solons at their regular session Monday night, the first session to be held in the new council rooms on the second floor of the city building. A number of visitors were present and most of the official family of the city was present.

Stock Pens Once More.

The B. & O. stock pens first occupied the attention of the solons, the matter being brought to their attention by one of the citizens residing near the pens. Solicitor Junk stated that he had met some of the B. & O. officials who indicated a willingness to expend $4,000 or $5,000 in placing the pens in the much mooted "sanitary condition," but he had informed them that he believed the only solution that would prove satisfactory would be the removal of the pens to another point.

Mayor Dahl thought the citizens about the pens were entitled to some relief, and stated that he believed the Solicitor should do what at once, as previously instructed by council, and this was agreed to by Solicitor Junk.

Public Watering Tanks.

The Service Committee, which had been instructed to locate public watering tanks on South Fayette, West Market and at the Point and North street intersection or a point near it, made a partial report in which tanks or troughs in front of Wesley Chapel and north of the Burnett building on West Court street, were recommended. The Service Director was instructed to erect them.

More Pay Is Wanted.

An ordinance, fathered by Bloomer and supported by former Solicitor Pope Gregg, who represented the police and firemen, was presented and read three times, providing for the increase of wages of the regular patrolmen from $79 to $85 per month; regular firemen from $79 to $85 per month, and the fire chief to $90 per month.

Attorney Gregg stated that salaries had not been keeping pace with the cost of living, or with the wages, and that the cost of living had more than doubled in the last year or two, so that there was an urgent need of giving the city employees a better salary than the cost of living was regarded as very ordinary compensation when the cost of living was far less than now.

After considerable argument it was finally agreed that, after the proposed ordinance had passed its various readings, that before final passage it should be placed in the hands of a committee for investigation, to report on at the next meeting. Whelpley, Himmler and Phillips were named on the committee.

Relief is in Sight.

Service Director Tracy announced that arrangements had been made for remedying the glaring defects in the sidewalks at the Odd Fellows home corner, and at the Christian church corner, and that the work would be done this week.

The extension of the water main on East Temple street and sidewalk building on Millikan avenue were brought up, and reports that nothing had been done, were made by the service director and engineer.

The clerk was directed to notify Mrs. Noble regarding repair of the sidewalk in front of her property on South Fayette street, and the Service Director was asked to see Thabitt & Jamra and have certain obstruction in the sidewalk on East street in front of the place they have occupied removed without further delay. In the same motion The DahlCampbell Branch was to be notified of repairs necessary in the sidewalk where a sewer was constructed and walk not replaced properly, while waiting for the street improvement that has been dragging along for a year.

Reports Are Filed.

Safety Director William Smith reported on the sale of the police patrol and other matters.

Mayor Dahl's report for the month of April showed $98.80 in fines; $35.60 in costs and $6 in licenses, a total of $140.40 collected during the month.

The Auditor's report showed balances in various departments, May 1st as follows: General fund, $924.78; Safety, $1713.92; Health, $150.81; Service, $4825.42; Library, nothing. The sale of bonds, $2,000 street improvement, and $2,000 for fire truck, to the Commercial Bank at par and accrued interest, was announced.

Extension of a drain on Church street, up an alley to a point, was authorized. Construction of a ditch on Oak street near the D. T. & L. also was authorized.

Repair of sidewalk at the intersection of East and Fayette streets was authorized. This section belongs to the city.

Just before adjournment Hicks moved that the Service Director make immediate repair of the street at the intersection of North and Court and Main and East streets, where the street is dangerous as result of bad depressions.

STATE CONVENTION AT SPRINGFIELD

Fayette County will have the largest delegation of accredited representatives in its history, at coming state Sunday School convention at Springfield, May 28 to 31. Credentials can be secured from Ruth Mark, County Secretary.

"The Springfield convention will be the biggest in the history of the organization," and our county now has a chance to beat the rest of the state by the size of the crowd we send down there. Leading Sunday School specialists of the world will give addresses."

Senator Lawrence Y. Sherman, of Illinois, temperance advocate in the United States Congress, will come from Washington to speak before the convention Wednesday, May 29, "Ohio Dry Day" on "The Sheppard Amendment and Ohio." He is called the modern Lincoln, because of his striking resemblance in face and beliefs to the great president.

Memorial Day will be observed as administration day at the convention. As it is a holiday, it is believed a large crowd of those interested in Sunday School problems will attend from here, in addition to the accredited delegates. Frank L. Brown, of

New York, secretary of the World's Sunday School association and superintendent of the second largest Sunday School in the world, and Howard J. Gee of East Orange, New Jersey, recognized Sunday School executive, will be the main speakers.

The war has made great changes in Sunday School work, and problems arising from war conditions are among the main topics before the convention. Some state Sunday school executives advocate the use of religious organizations for war relief work, instead of the formation of new relief units.

An attendance of 4000 is expected at Springfield. Accredited delegates will receive free entertainment on the Harvard plan, according to which Springfield citizens will furnish lodging and breakfast to the delegates at their homes.

Among the members is Mrs. Thomas Page, wife of the American Ambassador.

CAPT. L. P. HOWELL LEAVES FOR CAMP TUESDAY MORNING

Captain L. P. Howell, of the United States Medical Division, departed on Tuesday morning for Camp Greenleaf, Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia, for a short period of preliminary training before departing for France, where he expects to be in active service near the battlefield within a comparatively short period of time.

Receiving the summons from the reserve ranks of the division only a few days ago, Captain Howell hurriedly made arrangements for his departure, and was overwhelmed with business matters and taking care of his practice until the last minute. Mrs. Howell accompanied him as far as Cincinnati.

Because of his wide experience with the American army in the Philippine Islands, where he spent some three years, Captain Howell will be a valuable man in the service, and while his host of friends in this city are loth to see him go, they wish him God-speed, knowing the great good that he can do among the sick and wounded.

The splendid reports given by the various officers and chairman gave to Mrs. Woodward generous tribute for the satisfactory work accomplished during her regency.

The Pardoning Power

President Wilson exercising the power given him by the constitution has granted a pardon to some young soldiers convicted by court martial in far away France of having fallen asleep while on sentry duty and condemned to be shot.

There are very few indeed of the folks back here at home who, now that they know the facts, will question the wisdom of the pardon. Just young, inexperienced fellows probably accustomed to regular hours and over whom in the quiet hours of the night, way out at some lonesome sentry post in a far away land, nature asserted dominion. The tired body surrendered to the demand for sleep.

President Lincoln had many such cases to deal with during the dark days of the civil war and if he erred in the exercise of the pardoning power, it was on the side of mercy.

It is to meet cases like these that we have vested the President with power to pardon, and it is well, in times like these, that we have a tender-hearted chief executive.

We can't expect the military to overlook such an offense as sleeping while on sentry duty—that wouldn't do—there are too many lives depending upon the watchfulness of the men at the sentry posts. The military discipline must be maintained.

At the same time, when we realize that one of our brave boys, with no bad intent, just couldn't keep his heavy eyelids from falling shut—couldn't forego one glimpse of home behind the curtain of sleep—well any way, we are glad of the pardon.

Two Peasant Lads

The Germans have added one more fiendish murder to their appalling total of horrors—a total, which the German people for many long years after the war closes, will not be able to make the world forget and forgive.

It is General Baden-Powell who tells us of the little French lad—a boy scout, just a little chap but a hero—found by the advancing Germans in a wood and taken prisoner asked if there was any armed French force near, refused to answer.

Later on the Germans were fired upon and driven out of the wood by the French, and the little lad was shot—"executed." With firm step the little soldier marched up to the wall, faced his murderers and received the volley of the firing squad in his frail body. He died for France. The Germans say he was "infatuated."

No excuse can be given—none is or can be offered for that monstrous murder.

Almost one hundred and three years ago a little Belgian peasant lad, acting as guide to Blucher's army, gave at the forks of the road the proper direction and as a result Blucher arrived first at Waterloo and the sun of Napoleon's ambition sank forever.

If the little peasant lad had advised Blucher to debouche from the forest above Frischmont instead of below Plancenoit, the Prussians would have been delayed by the necessity to bridge a deep ravine and Grouchy would have arrived at Waterloo and the well-nigh exhausted army of Wellington could not have rallied for the final attack.

We wonder, although the fate of an empire rested with that little peasant lad who, one hundred and three years ago, directed Blucher correctly would have been executed if he had indicated the wrong road.

We think he would not. That the murder of brave little peasant lads is the effect of German kultur which has grown up since the present regime obtained control.

Cincinnati

People of Ohio have had occasion to say some unkind things about the Queen City during the past decade, because of its stand on political matters and on the temperance issue. Some ultra-radical folks, too, were inclined to question the patriotism of the Queen City.

The result of the present loan campaign in Cincinnati removes all honest question. A city which will subscribe fifty per cent more than its quota and a city in which five out of every six homes purchased liberty bonds, is patriotic all right, and Cincinnati did just that.

Cincinnati's record of unquestioned patriotism entitles it to a new starting point. The old slate should be wiped clean. Cincinnati, all right on patriotism, will doubtless be right on other issues from this time on.

There is no city in the land which has made a better record than Cincinnati in war work, war activity and practical patriotism.

Good for old Cincinnati.

Poetry For Today

KEEP THE HOME FIRES BURNING

They were summoned from the hill-side,
They were called in from the glen;
And the country found them ready,
At the stirring call for men.
Let no tears add to their hardship,
As the soldiers pass along,
And although your hearts are breaking,
Make it sing this cheery song.

Chorus:
Keep the home fires burning,
While your hearts are yearning,
Though your lads are far a way
They dream of home;
There's a silver lining,
Through the dark clouds shining
Turn the dark cloud inside out
Till the boys come home.

Over seas there came a pleading,
Help a nation in distress
And we gave our glorious laddies—
Honor made us do no less,
For no gallant son of freedom
To a tyrant's yoke should bend
And a noble heart must answer
To the sacred call of friend.

Chorus:

German Retained.

Cleveland, May 7.—The board of education voted to continue the teaching of the German language in the Cleveland high schools. Superintendent F. E. Paulding contended that youths called into the army to fight against Germany should be equipped with knowledge of the language.

Strike In Ship Yard.

Toledo, May 7.—The 1,700 employees of the Toledo Shipbuilding company, working on transport ships for the government, struck and the yards were closed. An adjustment of wages, carrying approximately 25 per cent pay increase, was being worked out by the United States shipping board.

Condition of Wheat.

Columbus, May 7.—Wheat prospects for May 1 were 87 per cent of normal, which is 4 per cent better than a year ago. State Secretary of Agriculture Shaw says, however: "Much of the wheat is still weak and thin and does not possess the degree of vitality that should be shown at this time under more favorable circumstances."

Woman's Body Found.

Columbus, May 7.—Coroner Herkowitz and police are conducting an investigation to determine whether a woman whose body was removed from the Scioto river had committed suicide. Her identity has not been established. In her shoes and on her stockings was the name "J. Criger," written in indelible ink. Her age was guessed at 33.

To Red Cross Chapters.

Cleveland, May 7.—Because the American Red Cross is having difficulty in securing gauze for surgical dressings, 352 Lake division chapters in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky have been ordered to curtail surgical dressings production during the next six weeks. A statement to this effect was made by Frank E. Abbott, director of development at division headquarters.

CANTEN CHEERS WEARY SOLDIERS

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Chicago, May 7.—Tired and travel worn, dust begrimed from long, tedious hours spent in packed coaches, soldiers of the United States traveling through this city are being cheered most effectively by the "canteen service" of the Chicago Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Steaming coffee, sandwiches prepared by mothers many of whose sons are in France, chocolates, home-made cookies, magazines, books, and tobacco—all these are given to the travelling troops.

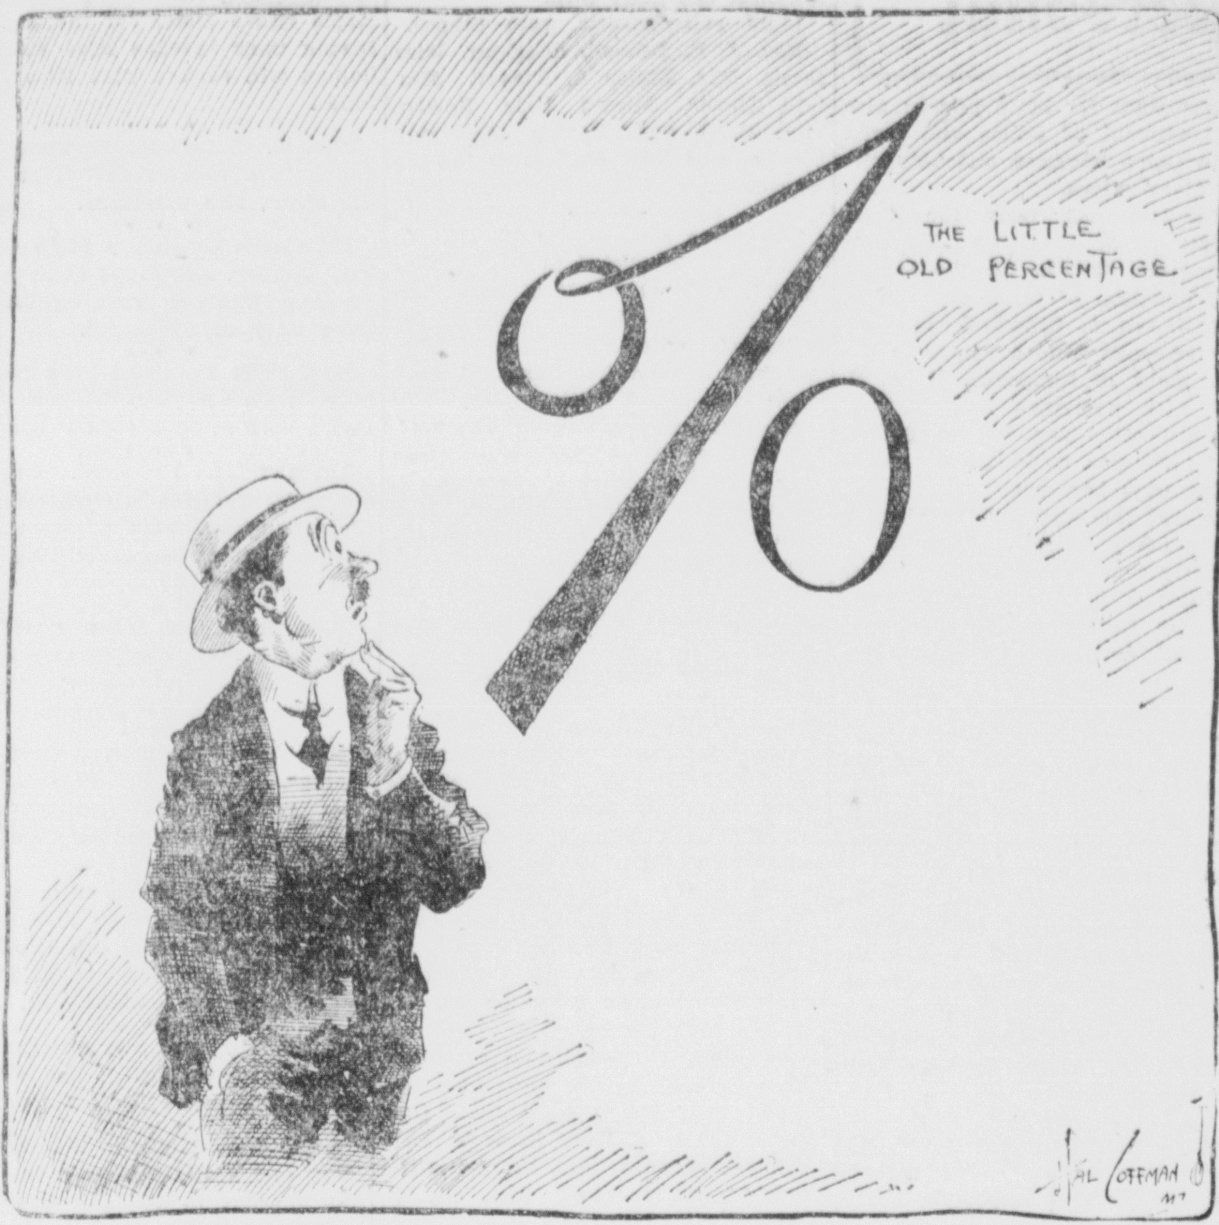

For several months the service has been conducted under secret orders, the Red Cross being notified an hour

FORGET IT

Now is the time to forget the little old percentage mark, and continue to forget it until this war is over. You probably have chances to make money in other investments than War Savings Stamps—but, if we lose this war what would those investments be worth? Shoot the last nickel with your Uncle Sam. He not only needs it, but he's spending it to help YOU. Forget the percentage for once, you can make up for it when the world is again normal and a safe place to live in.

RUSSIA IN NEED OF ALLIED HELP

(Associated Press Correspondence)

London, April 15.—Captain Jean Seba of the Czech-Slovak army, who has just reached London from the Russian port on the Murman coast, has been engaged for several months in organizing a Czech-Slovak army in Russia, composed mainly of men who were formerly in the Austrian army and became prisoners in Russia. In an interview with The Associated Press he said:

"Our army in Russia is so far a small one, but the men having been formerly in the Austrian army, are well trained, and are thoroughly acquainted with the organization and methods of the enemy.

"My observations in Russia during the past few months convince me that for the present Russia is like a sick person who needs breathing space and a rest cure. I am sure she will again come into the war. But it is of prime importance that the Russian invalid should not be deserted by his friends or left to his fate.

"With the help of the Allies, Russia can be brought back. There is already plenty of evidence of a reaction. The working classes are beginning to realize that if Germany is permitted to go on, everything will be lost. All over the country there are local Soviets and other organizations which will never give in to the German influence.

Rev. Rose, of the Staunton circuit of the M. E. Church, presided at each meeting, and at Staunton the speakers for the afternoon were Hon. J. D. Post, Hon. Frank C. There was deep response to the appeal made by the speakers, with every indication that each community will "be there" when the call is made to fill the Fayette County War Chest.

CITIZENS BUSY IN WAR GARDENS

The hundreds of citizens who have war gardens in this city have been very busy in them during spare moments, with the result that most of the war gardens now present an attractive appearance that is a delight to the eye of the owner.

Never before have gardens been receiving the attention that they have this year, and the result will be that a host of citizens will have all of the fresh vegetables and other garden produce that they can use during the summer and fall, with a liberal saving for winter use, thereby becoming more nearly self-supporting and reducing very materially the high cost of living.

RED CROSS ACTIVITIES

That many women of the County are responding to the test and sacrificing time and pleasure to the great need for Red Cross supplies is given most gratifying proof in the report presented by Mrs. Eva J. Penn, chairman of the Red Cross work shop, of the amount of work done since the report of April the 12th.

The showing is certainly a splendid one and the perfection of the work is as satisfactory as the large amount.

MONTHLY REPORT

916 bed shirts shipped; 155 bed shirts in the work shop ready to ship; 110 pairs of socks and 10 sweaters shipped; 81 pairs of socks and 3 sweaters ready to ship; 18 ambulance pillows; 36 property bags; 18 towels shipped; 12 pillows, 85 property bags ready to ship.

The Fayette County Grand Jury Tuesday afternoon filed a report of its findings, after being in session two days and having examined fifty witnesses, covering 15 cases. Nine indictments were returned, and six cases were ignored, among them being a sensational case from West Lancaster.

The indictments were: Turner Randolph, for shooting with intent to kill and counts for shooting with intent to kill and to wound. Randolph also was indicted for carrying concealed weapons.

Carey Edgar Hyer, alias Edgar Hyer was indicted for selling mortgaged property; also for publishing and uttering a promissory note, with count for forgery.

their prayers they shall be taught to pray for their far-distant friends across the sea.

This is a line from an Italian newspaper, the Gazzetta di Venezia, which recently printed a glowing description of the work of relief that the American Red Cross has done in Italy. It tells how grateful the Venetians were when a milk station was opened in their quaint city by the Red Cross agents—how much it meant to them during their hour of suspense, anxiety and peril when the Austrians were thundering almost at the city's gates, and when it was feared the city might be turned to ruin by enemy guns.

LAST SAD SERVICE HELD AT THE HOME

At the home at Johnson's Crossing where but five months ago relatives and friends gathered for the farewell services of Mrs. Amilda Johnson, there was a second sorrowful assemblage on Monday afternoon for the last sad rites over Miss Julia Hyer.

It seemed passing strange that these two women, should find the close bonds of their friendship uniting them in eternal reunion within so brief a span—so short a time that it seemed as if even in death they were not divided.

And in every way possible relatives planned the funeral services along lines similar to the simple and tender services that were held over Mrs. Johnson.

A magnificent floral blanket, almost the duplicate of the one which had covered Mrs. Johnson's casket, was spread over Miss Hyer, and the same request that there be no floral remembrances. But nevertheless there were many and beautiful flowers surrounding the bier.

It was one of the largest funerals ever held in that section. Miss Hyer's friends, both personal and those made in the years of her farm management and business activity, were legion, and from Washington, New Holland, Frankfort, Austin and a widely extended territory people came in numbers.

The tragedy of her death snatching from life's activities a woman of sterling character and capability—hung over the home and aroused a keen regret beyond the usual.

The beautiful services were conducted by Rev. E. E. Stone, of Frankfort, Rev. P. W. Drumm, of New Holland; Rev. W. M. Davis, of West Holland and Rev. J. C. Arbuckle, of Columbus.

A long funeral procession followed the auto hearse to Greenlawn, the Frankfort cemetery, where all that was mortal was laid to rest in the Johnson family lot by the side of the beloved friend.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. Chas. Grimes, Frank Junk, Addison Hyer, John Hyer, Chas. Schasteen, Roy Hyer, Harry Davis and Carl Graham.

Relatives attending from a distance were a brother, Mr. Fred Hyer, of Pittsburg, Ind.; Alfred Laninger, of Danville, Ind.; Mrs. Mary McAdams, Ponito, Ind.; Mrs. Almee Burns, Dewey, Okla.; Mrs. Zannie Burns, Hartford City, Ind.

ANOTHER FAYETTE MAN ON VERGE OF LEAVING FOR WAR

Mr. J. W. Knisley, residing east of this city, is in receipt of a letter from his brother, Jack, who was stationed at Camp Mills just before embarking for "Over There." It gives some good sidelights on the soldier's life. The letter follows:

April 28, 1918.

Camp Mills Long Island, N. Y.
Dear Brother and Family.

I haven't got much of a place to they expect us to look clean and there isn't even a board around here you can get to write on. Things are not very convenient around here the only light we have is candles. This is just sort of a mobilization camp here. We live in tents and there is no floor in them, there is no place to hang anything up and if you lay it on the floor it is on the ground, but they expect us to look clean and tidy any way. It is quite a different camp from camp Green but they are just breaking us in to the way we will have to live over there. We have no mess hall here; we take our mess kits and pass by the kitchen and they dish it out to us, then we sit down on the ground and eat it and when the wind blows it is sure great. But I am not kidding.

We surely had a good time coming up here. They talk about the southern hospitality, but we could tell as soon as we crossed the dixie line, the farther north we got the more they cheered us. When we would pass through the little towns or big ones either the whistles would all blow till we got through and the people would be standing along the track by the hundreds with cigarettes, apples, candy, papers and all kinds of magazines to hand us as we went by. I grabbed one thing I didn't want once, some girl help up a jar of black berries and the fellow in front of me missed it and I got it but it slipped out of my hands and hit the side of the window and I got the blackberries and the fellow in the next window got the glass, so that knocked us both out for a while. I had to wash my shirt and he had to go get his face packed up! The places where we stopped there were Red Cross women with tobacco and eats and stamped postcards; they seemed to know we were coming for I think they were all present. The morning we were on train we got up in Washington, D. C. and the railroad yards were full of Red Cross women with coffee for the soldiers. The northern people made us feel like we had something to fight for and we could surely notice it because the people in Charlotte, N. C. didn't have much use for soldiers all they wanted was their money and they sure got it, so we are glad to get up here if it is a little more inconvenient.

THE MUTT AND JEFF OF CAMP DEVENS

"LONG AND THE SHORT OF IT"

These two colored soldiers of Uncle Sam, despite the great difference in sizes, are inseparable pals. Nathaniel Singleton is four feet eleven, while his pal, Fred Mader, tops six feet eight. Both are from Miami, Fla., and were among the colored troops recently transferred from the South to Northern camps. They are at Camp Devens, Ayers, Mass.

There is more excitement around here, the airships are thicker here than birds were in North Carolina and there is some place to go here when you get a pass. I have been to Hempstead a couple of nights.

I don't think we will be here many days. This is the first time I have had time to write for a month for it is the first day we have had off for about that long. We are supposed to have Saturday afternoon and Sunday off, but there has been something doing all the time for the last month. We had our final inspection yesterday afternoon, then this morning we all thought we would get all day off, but about 9 o'clock they came down the line yelling "light pack and field shoes; parade at 10 o'clock;" so that spoiled things for the day. I don't think it will be long 'till we will be in the trenches for the only thing they are giving us is bayonet drill and it is some stuff too the way they make us work at it now days.

They say we will kill more Germans with the bayonet than we will with bullets so I can see where I am going to get in the thickest of it.

They have issued us our steel helmets here, and they are surely funny looking things. They look like a wash-pail turned down over your head.

It takes most of my spare minutes for study. I have to study in order to keep 'up. The most of this outfit are old service men and they are real soldiers so that makes it hard for the recruits. There were 18 came into this Company about the same time I did and they have all been transferred, but five on account of not being able to pick it up quick enough, and two of the five have seen service before so you see I have to study to hold my job. I got a letter from a girl at home yesterday and she said she had been down to Chillicothe and saw how I lived, but I think she is badly mistaken, for those boys are doing their feathered soldiering now they will get some of the real stuff later. They can wear any kind of clothes they want to there, if they buy them, they can wear wrap or leather leggings if they can afford them, but we can't. Every soldier looks alike here, we even have the regulation or overseas haircut and it must be just so, so, it is cut close behind and about one to one-half inches long on top, combed straight back so if you are looking for any one you have to look them in the face for they all look alike otherwise, and I had begun to think the captain was going to make us all wear the same kind of a face yesterday for inspection. It was some inspection every thing was spotless and shining. It looked fine.

I just ran out to see an airship. We could hear him but we couldn't see him only once in a while and he was mixed in the clouds then. They cut all kinds of stunts here. They have an aviation field on this island and the air is thick with them all of the time.

SUFFRAGE LOSES

Washington, May 7.—An agreement on the bill extending the selective draft law to youths 21 years old since June 5, 1917, was reported by senate and house conferees.

The amendment of Mr. Hull of Iowa, providing that the additional registrants shall be placed at the bottom of present eligible lists, was retained.

The house conferees accepted the senate provision for exemption from the draft law of theological and medical students. Immediate ratification by the senate and house of the conferees' agreement on the measure will be sought, that there may be no further delay in its use in connection with the new draft.

Provost Marshal General Crowder opposed the amendment placing the new registrants at the bottom of the eligible lists. The conferees also adopted an amendment, which General Crowder also opposed, requiring registration of men already in the military service, who have attained their majority since last June 5. General Crowder thinks this work would be unnecessary, costly and would be resented by some of the men in the service.

A motion proposing that the senate proceed next Friday to consider the house woman suffrage resolution was defeated in the senate. The vote was 40 to 21, just one less than the necessary two-thirds.

Although the vote was on beginning debate only, most of these voting were believed to have recorded themselves as they would vote on the resolution itself, which the house adopted last January. If the lineup is maintained the resolution would be defeated.

The vote came on a motion of Chairman Jones of the senate suffrage committee to proceed with the house resolution Friday. Previously Senator Jones had announced that he would endeavor to take up and dispose of the resolution the latter part of the week. Senator Pomerene voted against adoption. When Senator Jones renews his motion Friday to proceed with the house resolution, only a majority vote will be required. Confidence of the resolution's supporters of favorable final action was indicated. They have stated that a vote would not be sought until the necessary pledges for two-thirds majority were had.

HUNDRED LIVES HAVE BEEN LOST IN FLYING CAMPS

Washington, May 7.—One hundred and two deaths in flying accidents occurred at 18 aviation camps in the United States and at Camp Borden, Canada, where American flyers are training, up to last April 24, the war department announced. Several fatal accidents have occurred since that time and since the fields were opened a number of aviators and students have been injured. The number of fatalities is not considered large by war department officials when the great number of men in training is taken into consideration. Many of the accidents occurred over a period of a few weeks in March and April, when many flyers were receiving their final training in the southern camps.

ONE VOTER IS ENTIRE VILLAGE

(Associated Press Correspondence)
London, April 1.—Under the new election law, the smallest village in England is Hopwas-Hayes in South Staffordshire, which contains only one voter. He constitutes the town meeting, of which he is both chairman and clerk, nominating and electing himself to both offices. He must audit his own accounts and present them to the authorities for approval.

		127	Liberty Laboratories.

The above are anti-hog cholera serum producing establishments only, while numbers omitted have either been cancelled or are held by companies producing biologics other than serum.

Occasionally a company (either licensed or unlicensed) will market serum under their own label, but the product is prepared in some other establishment and under another license number. This fact can be ascertained only by reference to License Number of producing establishment, or serial number of product. The principal objection to the use of a product of this sort is, in case of trouble, where to place the responsibility, with the seller (who did not produce it) or the producer (who did not sell it). It is always advisable to insist upon the use of a product sold by the producer, and one that is absolutely fresh. Any plant where operations have been discontinued is either selling serum produced by some other establishment or is disposing of some old stock.

One word as to proper time to vaccinate: Bear this in mind, an animal already sick from a certain disease nor can it be immunized against such disease. If your sows are immune they will confer a passive immunity upon their offspring so long as they derive their sustenance from the mother. This immunity will lapse later, but until such time such pigs cannot be immunized against cholera.

The undersigned will gladly give any information possible with reference to serum, its production and use or assist in any manner in the control of hog cholera.

AMERICANS SHELLED BY THE ENEMY

Paris, May 7.—The Germans launched a heavy gas attack against the American troops on the Picardy front. They sent over 15,000 shells, composed chiefly of mustard gas, within a brief period. These shells were followed by an intense artillery fire. Later several hundred gas shells were dropped into the American lines. Enemy airplanes appeared over the American lines about the same time. Anti-aircraft guns brought down one German machine and damaged another.

The extreme activity of the artillery and aviators, the rifle fire and night flares and the reported movements behind the enemy lines in this sector may forecast a new attack, but General Pershing's men are ready for any emergency. They are counteracting the enemy preparations blow for blow, keeping up a harassing artillery, rifle and machine gun fire, and are actively patrolling. The spirit of the Americans is excellent.

One American officer and three privates were awarded the Cross of War at a hospital in Verdun for gallantry displayed in the recent raid by German shock troops on American positions.

FILES PETITION FOR STATE SENATOR

Hon. Frank C. Parrett, Fayette county's representative to the State Legislature, Monday filed his nomination petition for State Senator from this district, on the Republican ticket.

While the petition was filed in this county, it will later be filed in the most populous county in the district—Ross county—which, under the law, makes the filing legal and places Mr. Parrett in nomination subject to the decision of the voters at the August primary.

PALACE TO COVER SOME 30 ACRES

(Associated Press Correspondence)
Lyons, France, April 8.—The first piles have just been driven for the foundation of the palace in which the Lyons Fair will be held hereafter. The building will cover thirty acres of ground alongside the park of the Tete d'Or on the banks of the Rhone, and will accommodate 4,000 exhibitors. The cost is estimated at 20,000,000 francs. This outlay is justified on the ground that the gross receipts from last year's fair were 1,200,000 francs.

The remarkably increased interest of American firms in the enterprise was the outstanding feature of the last fair. They numbered 543 as against 25 in 1916, and the United States passed from sixth in importance among foreign exhibitors to the first rank, with more than four times as many exhibitors as any other foreign country. The figures were: American, 543; English, 130; Swiss, 114; Spanish, 33; Italian, 40; Dutch, 22.

Business approaching 500,000,000 francs was transacted. This exceeds the business done at the Leipzig fair of 1914 when the organizers announced a total of 300,000,000 marks.

The Palais de la Foire as it will be called will furnish office accommodations to exhibitors as well as stands, warehousing facilities, rail transportation to doors of the palace and ample provision will be made for clearing exhibits through the customs at offices on the ground.

LOAFERS MUST GO SAYS MAYOR DAHL

Mayor V. J. Dahl is in receipt of a letter from Governor Cox urging relentless war against the loafer, and he is starting at once to carry out the instructions to the letter. He will co-operate with Sheriff Jones in waging war on the idler, and announced that he would start immediately.

The pool room loafers and street corner loafers are expected to get busy instant or the official lightning will strike them and they will be hurried into the workhouse or out on the farm and forced to work.

"This is no time to have a bunch of loafers hanging about, and I am not going to tolerate it any longer. I know just what I can do and what is expected of all mayors, so the loafer must go," is the way Mayor Dahl sizes up the situation.

There has been quite a number of habitual loafers in this city, and it is expected to be a fertile field in which to strike the loafer problem a hard blow.

Only a few days ago the authorities took action against a pair of idlers in one of the towns in the county, and they are now employed on farms.

GENERAL KENNEDY DEAD

Columbus, May 7.—General Robert Patterson Kennedy of Bellefontaine, aged 78, lieutenant governor of Ohio under Foraker and former member of congress, died of uraemic poisoning at Mt. Carmel hospital, where he had been a patient for two weeks.

General Kennedy was active in Republican politics many years and was familiarly known as "Fighting Bob." Born and reared at Bellefontaine, he enlisted in the Union army as a private at the beginning of the civil war. At its close he was made a brigadier general. President Lincoln personally congratulated him as the youngest man of that rank in the service. He was aged 24. His widow and four children survive. The funeral will be held at Bellefontaine.
